To [illegible] C. C. & H. Wayman

Sirs,

Your Catalogue of Ancient and Modern Coins and Medals was received that day by the way of Roxbury, Mass.

My eye fell upon Nos. 520 & 521

Please send me a plate of No. 52 and an appraisal of both numbers.

As I cannot attend the Sale in person if your appraisal comes within my means I will forward you my order for the Coins.

As the time is short please be prompt in your reply.

Respectfully yours,

Ashbel Woodward, M. D.

P. S. In what way shall I remit my order?

Franklin, Conn. Feb 10, 1880

To S. H. & H. Chapman

Sirs:

I gave you instructions yesterday No. 97 [illegible] and as there is a chance of miscarriage or delay and as the time is short I have concluded to repeat the instructions of yesterday this morning.

You were by me yesterday fully empowered to bid in for myself No. 303 on as favorable terms as you could. I trusted to your honor and directed you to secure for me the Pine tree three pence on the best terms that could be made.

Be true to my best interests as to cost and be sure to secure the coin and I will in the future stand by you—

At the proper time forward to me the coin in a Registered letter and I will remit to you for the same.

Respectfully yours,

[illegible] Woodward
